

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we approach this year's Stewardship Weekend, I am filled with gratitude for the many ways God is at work in our community. Every day, your faithfulness—in your service, your prayers, and your generous giving—make St. Michael parish's mission a reality.

This weekend is not simply about meeting a budget. It's about celebrating our shared purpose as disciples of Christ and prayerfully considering how we can continue to use the gifts God has entrusted to us. Your commitment, no matter the size, is a powerful act of faith that directly supports St. Michael to bring Christ to others and to serve others with love.

Over the past year, we have seen your generosity in action. We have partnered with our local food pantry to help feed the poor. Our youth group's trip to Indianapolis for the NCYC (National Catholic Youth Conference) is fully funded by St. Michael because of your generosity. These achievements are a testament to what we can do when we work together as a church family.

As we look forward to the coming year, we are excited about our vision for expanding our youth ministry and keeping our children safe. I invite you to join me in praying for this ministry and considering how you can participate through your giving of time, talent, and treasure.

Your stewardship is an essential part of our church's story. Fr. Van and I are profoundly thankful for your partnership in the Gospel.

Peace,
